Annual Magazine should be the reflection of all the important events, happenings, developments and activities that have taken place in an institution during the academic year. It should also depict the general feelings and emotions of faculty, staff and students through words & pictures.
- Annual college magazine (PANORMA) shall be useful in many ways. It has always been of great educative value. It encourages students to think and write and hence develop their writing skills and talents. Students are motivated to read general books, refer web sites and acquire knowledge from the works of great authors. But mere reading is not sufficient for balanced education.
