Visit to Old Age Home, Chaksu, Jaipur

- As a part of the subject, Human Values I Year RTU syllabus, the purpose of this visit was to inculcate in the students the values of empathy and compassion, i.e. –the capacity to feel what it is to live in somebody else’s skin and feel their pain; and develop an understanding of the shortcomings of the society we live in.
- On 25 th October 2018, a group of about 34 students accompanied by three Coordinators of the Helping Hands (PIET) and two faculty members – Mr. Rajpal Singh and Dr. Anurika Mehta, visited the Shri Ram Old Age Home. Mr. Kailash, the manager of the home informed that there were 30 inmates in the home and he explained in detail about the background, establishment and management of the old age home
- A delicious lunch of Rajasthan's traditional cuisines Daal, Baati and Churma was prepared there which was sponsored by all the students, coordinators and faculties enjoyed it in the company of the inmates of the old age home
- Outcomes & Learning-This visit was a huge learning experience for the young citizens and after spending four valuable hours, the students vowed to do something for senior citizens and contribute towards the betterment of their condition.
